

The Willows School
Academy Trust
Learning - Achieving - Succeeding

Equality & Diversity Policy

1. Introduction

The Willows School Academy Trust is committed to promoting equal opportunities, valuing diversity and tackling social exclusion. We aim to equip children with an awareness of our diverse society and to appreciate the value of difference. All policy principles are within national guidelines and legislation.

At The Willows every child matters irrespective of his/her creed, culture, class, race, gender, sexuality and/or disability.

Every aspect of The Willows School activity has an equal opportunities dimension. This may be expressed explicitly in teaching materials and display, implicitly in classroom practice, or as part of the 'hidden curriculum' of social interaction amongst and between staff and children.

The Willows School's environment influences the developing attitudes of the children within it and can be a powerful vehicle for the promotion of understanding and practice of equal opportunities.

We live in a society where disability discrimination segregates and isolates people from their communities. The Willows School aims through its proactive approach of inclusion to enable all children to an equality of access to The Willows School community. Addressing fundamental prejudices against disability in both children and adults is a core 'hidden' element of our inclusion work.

Characteristics of School

The Willows School is situated in the London Borough of Hillingdon. It draws its students from a very local catchment area within an approximately 1.7 mile radius of the school. The Willows School is a small school academy. Students who join the school come from many different primary schools and other local authorities.

Most students come from white heritage backgrounds. The percentage of students from minority ethnic groups has increased. When students start at the school, their attainment is broadly below national average; this is evidenced by the data provided from KS2 tests.

1.1 The Context of the policy

The Equality Act 2010 replaced all previous equality legislation such as the Race Relations Act, Disability Discrimination Act and Sex Discrimination Act.

2. Aim

The Willows School aims to foster a sense of community in which all students and staff are valued and can thrive, regardless of:

Disability

Gender reassignment

Pregnancy and maternity

Race

Religion or belief (including lack of religion or belief)

Gender

Sexual orientation and (in the case of adult members of the Academy Community)

Marital or civil partnership status; and

Age

These can be called the Protected Characteristics.

We will not tolerate racism, sexism, negative attitudes towards disability and other discriminatory practices. Any breach of this policy is dealt with by the appropriate member of staff or line manager. Where further action is needed, this will be taken in line with the school behaviour management policy, staff disciplinary procedure or complaints policy.

3. Objectives

We aim to:

- Encourage students to be open-minded and challenge prejudice.
 - To help students to develop their self-esteem and to recognise that they are each valued as individuals through actively encouraging their access to the full curriculum and extra-curricular activities.
 - To demonstrate that students are respected as individuals.
 - To help each student to achieve their full potential.
- To enable students to contribute actively to the process of education by bringing their cultural experiences, values and perspectives to it.
 - Be sensitive about equal opportunities issues in the selection of teaching materials and be aware of images and text, which may stereotype or denigrate groups or individuals.
 - Ensure that The Willows School is an equal opportunities employer so that staff feel valued, supported and have appropriate advice and encouragement for Professional Development.
 - To use our resources to help those who need additional help to overcome barriers.

We aim to achieve this by:

- Treating all those within the whole school community (e.g. students, staff, governors, parents and community) as individuals with their own particular abilities, beliefs, challenges, attitudes, background and experiences.
- Creating a school ethos which promotes equality, develops understanding and challenges myths, stereotypes, misconceptions and prejudices
- Encouraging everyone within our school community to gain a positive self- image and high self-esteem.
- Having high expectations of everyone involved with the whole school.
- Promoting mutual respect and valuing others' similarities and differences and facing equality issues openly.
- Striving to identify and removing all practices, procedures and customs which are discriminatory and replacing them with practices which are fair to all.

Monitoring and reviewing all of the above to seek to secure continuous improvement.

This statement of Equal Opportunities requires a commitment from every member of the school community. It is based upon our Code of Conduct that rests upon the principles of Respect, Responsibility and Cooperation.

The Willows School staff and governors will ensure that:

3.1 Gender

- That all students have equal access to activities, opportunities and services offered at The Willows as appropriate.
- That teaching and associate staff are aware that gender stereotyping may influence their expectations and attitudes. Teaching ethos and curriculum organisation should actively encourage students to make choices based on their preferences.

Appropriate action will be taken in line with our Behaviour Management and Anti-bullying policies in dealing with any incident of physical or verbal threats, abuse or harassment of individuals or groups related to their religion, race, language, ability/disability, sexuality age or gender.

This policy has been developed with reference to the Human Rights Act 1998 and the Equality Act 2010 and should be reviewed if substantial changes occur.

This policy, sets out our commitment to tackling racial discrimination and promoting equality and good race relations, and explains what this means for the whole school community.

This school will promote race equality and oppose racism in all its forms and foster positive attitudes and commitment to an education for equality.

3.4 Religion

We acknowledge that members of the school come from diverse backgrounds: some have no religious faith; others are committed to a greater or lesser extent to a variety of religions. We seek to promote an ethos of tolerance based on understanding of and respect for the beliefs and practices of others.

With regard to the teaching of RE we consider that the role of the teacher is that of educator and not that of evangelist. We do not seek to make students religious, but to teach them about religion.
